CIVIL ACTION NO. H-05-3136

MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

In this case, Plaintiff Joseph Cannon contends that Defendant Continental Airlines and the individual Defendants conspired to deprive Cannon, an airline pilot, of his medical certification to fly commercial aircraft. Cannon has stated claims for civil conspiracy, tortious interference with existing and prospective contracts and with future economic advantage, intentional infliction of emotional distress, defamation, invasion of privacy, and negligence. Defendants Debra Reynolds, Frederick Abbott, Jeffery Wall, K.D. Jost, and Kent DeShazo now move to dismiss Cannon's claims against them, pursuant to FED. R. CIV. P. 12(b)(6), for failure to comply with the governing statutes of limitations. After considering the parties' filings and oral arguments and the applicable law, the Court finds that the motions, Docket Nos. 56 through 60, should be and hereby are GRANTED IN PART and DENIED IN PART.

Cannon's defamation claim is governed by a one-year statute of limitations. TEX. CIV. PRAC. & REM. CODE § 16.002 (Vernon 1985). All of his other claims are subject to two-year limitations periods. Id. § 16.003. The last date upon which Cannon suffered harm allegedly caused by Defendants' actions was August 6, 2003, when the Federal Aviation Administration ("FAA") notified him that his medical certification had been withdrawn. Cannon filed suit in Texas state court on August 4, 2005. Cannon's defamation claim was thus untimely filed. His other claims, however, may proceed. Accordingly, Defendants' motions to dismiss are hereby GRANTED as to Cannon's defamation claims against them and are in all other respects DENIED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

SIGNED at Houston, Texas, on this the 19th day of April, 2006.
